THE SETTING

PEACEFUL SOLITUDE

Coochiemudlo Island is only 5 square kilometres in size, making it ideal to walk, ride or drive around the island. With only a few hilly inclines, the island is relatively flat, making riding, rolling, and walking excellent options, as the roads are Bituminous to facilitate chair movement.

At the end of the road, there is a concrete pathway leading to the beach, park, pontoon and restaurants.

The paved walkways also suit wheelchair users, enabling everyone to access the beach and enjoy the parklands, kids' playground, and free BBQs.

The beach is a bayside non-surf beach.

The three sandy beaches, Norfolk, Morwong and Main beach, are only a lovely 5-minute roll away to sit and enjoy the bay views.

THE LOCATION

ISLAND LIVING.

This accommodation is ideally suited for a relaxing, quiet retreat.

The three sandy beaches, Norfolk, Morwong and Main beach, are only a lovely 5-minute roll away in an electric wheelchair. Great for the kids and family to play cricket, football, kayak, fish and swim, or to sit and enjoy the bay views.
There is also a leash-free dog beach area on the western main beach for your pooch to enjoy (not currently accessible).
Pets are welcome on approval.

With solitude, there are a few places to grab a beer and a burger. Whilst Woolworths do deliver online orders at least four times a week, it is recommended you shop before getting in the car.
HERE is a link to the Barge timetable for your vehicle. It would be best for you to book the barge in advance to bring your vehicle.
