BATTERY HILL MINING CENTRE
Relive the last Australian gold rush! Built 1939, restored in 1958 this is the only operating ten head stamp battery in the NT. Experience the underground mining, visit the spectacular McLaughlin Minerals Collection and the Social History museum to see how families survived the harsh outback. The Battery Hill Mining Centre has magnificent views overlooking the township and surrounding Honeymoon Ranges. It echoes the soul and spirit of the early miners and is named after the original ten-head stamp battery.

ARLPWE ART & CULTURAL CENTRE
Great art, “friendy people”. 15 minutes. This phrase encapsulates the story behind the Arlpwe Art Gallery. The gallery is only 15 minutes in from the Stuart highway on a sealed bitumen road. The art centre is fast becoming ‘word’ famous as the place where great paintings and traditional artefacts are created.
