You'll find we're a friendly bunch - with roots in the Overland Telegraph Line, the gold rush, long dusty days of droving cattle and an important history supporting today's modern Indigenous culture. Make Tennant Creek your home base and explore the spiritual site of Karlu Karlu/Devil's Marbles, permanent waterholes at Lytwellpenty/Davenport Ranges National Park and learn about the harsh conditions our ancestors faced during the search for prized gold nuggets. Enjoy your stay, and if you need anything, just ask us.
