Our local brewers and distillers aren't the only creatives in town..

Frankston is also a canvas for some of the world's best street artists, home to almost 30 amazing artworks around the city. A permanent part of the Frankston landscape, these murals are the centrepiece of the city's guided Street Art Walking Tours. Local guides reveal an evolving arts and cultural edge in Frankston's epic outdoor street art gallery.

Frankston Brewhouse is a micro-brewery and restaurant serving socially approachable craft beer, brewed on-site in their 1,000-litre three-vessel Brewhouse. Owned by proud Frankston locals who have created a venue where people can come together and connect over quality craft beer and shared grazing style food. For Frankston residents, the brewhouse is 'the local' and for tourists, it's 'the destination'.

Some called him a rogue, some called him a convict, some even called him a legend, but what we do know is that James Squire was a very cheeky character indeed. The Cheeky Squire honour his legacy by celebrating a love of quality craft beers matched with modern pub food, made with top local produce from the Mornington Peninsula.
