

ECHUCA MOAMA

experience memorable holidays

SCHOOL HOLIDAY DEALS AND ACTIVITIES

ECHUCA MOAMA VISITOR CENTRE

When: 10th, 11th, 15th of April

Start: 11.30am

Come and meet the native residents who live at the Echuca Moama Visitor Centre. Bluey and Lizzie are our Eastern Blue Tongue Lizards who love leaving their tank for a pat and to show off their very blue tongues.

Our Murray River Short Neck Turtles, Terry and Myrtle, love to meet children. Take home a paper cut out turtle to decorate or sit down and colour it next to Terry and Myrtle - they will love to see that you come up with.

During the School Holidays our Visitor Services Officer Jenn will be holding a meet and greet session with our native residents.

SCHOOL HOLIDAY DEALS AND ACTIVITIES

FLAVOURS ON THE WHARF

'Flavours on the Wharf', a boutique food and wine festival will be held during the Easter school holiday period on the iconic Port of Echuca Wharf and will host a hand-picked selection of the best local producers to showcase the best culinary flavours that Echuca Moama has to offer.

Flavours on the Wharf incorporates the best of the Murray region: local wine and produce, lush vineyards, paddlesteamer cruises, cooking demonstrations, live music and paddlesteamer rides on the banks of the Murray River, for one glorious Autumn day on Sunday 14 April.

Our good friends Matthew Bentley & Lokki Summerville will serenade you into the afternoon whilst you indulge in local wine, beer and cider plus the mouthwatering aroma of local food to tempt your tastebuds.

Complete your afternoon with a paddlesteamer cruise along the mighty Murray River or expand your kitchen skills at one of the many cooking demonstrations.

With tickets starting at $25 and children U12 Free.
