August 19-21

Moama Lights

Visit Echuca Moama for the return of the Moama Lights event, lighting up the Murray from 31 July – 21 August 2022. Once again, our iconic red gum bushland and most legendary river will be illuminated using sound and lighting for an original and immersive experience like no other. Taking place in Moama's culturally-significant Horseshoe Lagoon, follow the trail of up-lit river red gums and theatrical fog rising from below the boardwalks as you are mesmerised by the lightshow of gum leaves slowly drifting across the lagoon. Venture into thick bushland where you will be engulfed by a canopy of light, captivated by the vast night sky of hundreds of flickering stars lights, and wander through a field of thousands of illuminated native flowers covering the bush floor. As the treeline begins to part, the majestic Murray River will reveal itself, ablaze with colour in a triumphant finale. Moama Lights has been produced by renowned production and lighting design company Mandylights. Moama Lights is brought to you by Murray River Council and Visit River Country. Tickets are Adults: $20; Children (3-16 years): $10; Children (under 3 years): Free - no need to obtain a ticket. Family (2 adults & 2 children): $50. Entry via Kerrabee Soundshell Moama. Tickets at the Door $20 adults, $5 under 18, EFTPOS available, Group Bookings Welcome. Proceeds to Aid Echuca Historical Society. Join us as we tell Lawson's own dramatic, often tragic life story, highlighted by his legendary, much-loved poems... about the bush and the city, mateship, endurance, kindness and resistance to oppression. Born on the goldfields, Lawson was a radical, a poverty-stricken alcoholic, unlucky in love, a jail inmate... yet his works were feted around the world. This year marks a century since he died... yet still Lawson is revered as a giant among writers, who held up a mirror showing us our Australian identity.
