Reef to the Rainforest to the Convenient OUTBACK

The Mackay Isaac Region is a vibe worth travelling for. Think reef-fringed coastlines, rainforest valleys, historic inland towns, and outback plains that stretch forever. Every destination has its own rhythm, its own story, and its own way of making you feel alive.

Beach days, mountain highs, cultural gems, rugged adventures... why choose one when you can have it all? Slow down, stay longer, and let curiosity lead the way.

From coastal hubs like the Mackay City, Cape Hillsborough, Sarina and Clairview to hinterland retreats like Calen, Finch Hatton and Eungella to inland legends like Clermont, Nebo, and Moranbah, each stop is a gateway to nature, flavours, and experiences you'll never forget.

Cape Hillsborough & Hibiscus Coast

If sunrise with wallabies on the beach isn't on your bucket list yet, it will be now. Cape Hillsborough is where rainforest meets reef, and nature calls the shots. Wake early for that iconic beach moment, then dive into a day of wild walks, fishing, and coastal chill vibes.

Getting HERE

Just 50km north of Mackay. Follow the Bruce Highway, then Yakapari-Seaforth Road, and let the adventure begin.

Find your VIBE

Sunrise with wildlife: Wallabies and kangaroos feeding on the shoreline – your ultimate Aussie photo op.

Bushwalking: Choose your own adventure – easy boardwalks or the Andrews Point Track for jaw-dropping lookouts (2.8km return at low tide).

Fishing & boating: Net-free waters mean epic catches. Seaforth's all-tide boat ramp makes it easy to launch.

Island exploring: Time your visit with low tide and walk across to Wedge Island to explore pristine coastline, hidden bays and natural rock pools.

Stay your way: Take your pick of self-contained cabins in the national park, beachside camping, or luxe off grid eco retreat glamping.

Let's
ROLL

Mackay City

The Mackay CBD is where city energy meets coastal charm. Think heritage streetscapes, buzzing cafés, street art trails, and boutique shopping, all just steps from the sparkling blue Pioneer River. It's the perfect base for day trips, nights out, and spontaneous adventures.

Getting HERE

Mackay City is the region's hub. 10 minutes from Mackay Airport and easy to explore on foot or by bike, scooter, car or bus.

Find your VIBE

Urban vibes: Art-deco architecture, laneway murals, and galleries that spark creativity.

Bluewater Lagoon: Three lagoons, slides, kids water park and free family fun under the sun.

Foodie finds: Trendy cafés, fine dining, and farmers' markets every week.

Botanic Gardens: 3km of lush trails, waterfalls, and wildlife moments.

Hidden gems: Wake parks, leafy avenues, and secret coffee spots in suburban pockets.

Stay your way: Inner-city stays with river views, action-packed lodges, or escape the city to a seaside escape.

Mackay Marina

Luxury yachts, turquoise waters, and a waterfront lined with palms. Mackay Marina is where coastal cool meets world-class vibes. Stroll the esplanade, grab fish and chips by the water, enjoy live music on the weekends, or sip cocktails as the sun dips behind the breakwater. This is your launchpad for island adventures and big-game fishing dreams.

Getting HERE

Just 10 minutes from Mackay City. Follow Harbour Road and let the ocean guide you.

Find your VIBE

Harbour Beach: Seasonally patrolled, family-friendly, and perfect for a salty splash.

Waterfront dining: Fresh seafood, sunset drinks, and breezy boardwalk vibes.

Adventure on tap: Access everything from sunset sailing to game fishing, island tours to whale watching.

Iconic sights: Pine Islet Lighthouse – one of the last working kerosene lighthouses in the world.

Stay in style: Hotel or marina-side apartments with views for days.

Let's
ROLL

Islands

Just off Mackay Isaac's coast, a cluster of untouched islands await. White sand beaches, coral reefs, and that feeling of being a world away. Snorkel in turquoise waters, hike rainforest trails, or simply sink into salt-soaked serenity. These islands are part of the Great Barrier Reef, but they're all yours to explore without the crowds.

Getting HERE

Accessible by private vessel or local transfer services from Mackay Marina.

Find your VIBE

Private Islands: To name one, Keswick Island is made up of 80% national park and white sand beaches. It's everything you need from an island adventure, without the crowds.

Secluded beaches: Perfect for barefoot wanderers and sunset seekers.

Snorkel & dive: Discover vibrant marine life beneath crystal-clear waters.

Wildlife moments: Spot turtles, seabirds, and maybe even a whale in season.

Nature trails: Bushwalk to panoramic lookouts for that postcard-perfect view.

Pure escape: Switch off, slow down, and let the ocean set the pace.

Let's
ROLL

Northern Beaches

For palm-fringed sands, ocean breezes, and that slow-down-and-soak-it-in vibe, Mackay's Northern Beaches are your tropical escape without the crowds. Each beach has its own personality, so pick your spot and let the day unfold.

Getting HERE

Just north of Mackay. Follow the Bruce Highway and let the coastline guide you.

Find your VIBE

Blacks Beach: Six kilometres of golden sand – perfect for long walks and lazy afternoons.

Bucasia Beach: Picnic under the palms or cast a line straight from the shore.

Shoal Point: Low tide magic! Sand stretches hundreds of meters with Green Island on the horizon.

Dolphin Heads: Resort vibes and sunsets worth a thousand photos.

Eimeo Beach: Heritage mango trees, a historic pub, and a seasonally lifeguard-patrolled beach for family fun.

Let's
ROLL

Pioneer Valley & Eungella

The Pioneer Valley opens into a world of sugarcane fields, misty mountains, and rainforest trails that feel like another planet. Cool off in crystal-clear rock pools, chase waterfalls, or send it at the world-class Finch Hatton MTB Park. Keep climbing and you'll hit Eungella National Park with sky-high lookouts, misty trails, and one of the best places in the world to spot a wild platypus.

Getting HERE

About 80 minutes west from Mackay. Follow the winding roads west and let the adventure unfold.

Find your VIBE

Finch Hatton Gorge: Gentle rainforest walks to swim under waterfalls at Araluen Cascades or Wheel of Fire.

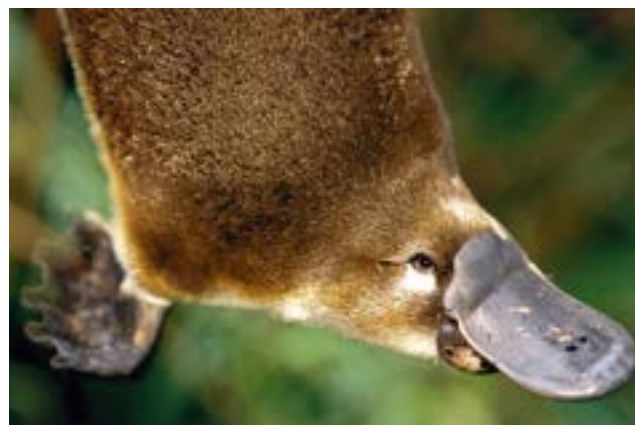

Mountain biking: 16 epic trails through rainforest ranges – adrenaline guaranteed.

Eungella National Park: Australia's longest stretch of subtropical rainforest, with views that stop you in your tracks.

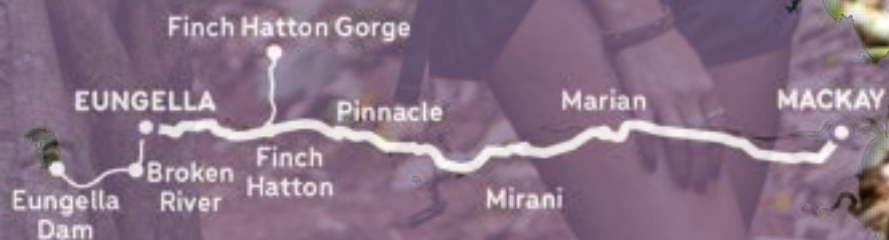

Wildlife moments: Accessible platypus spotting at Broken River – dawn or dusk is magic.

Country charm: Heritage towns, famous pies, and historic homesteads along the way.

Sky Window: A short walk that leads to massive views, accessible and family friendly.

Let's
ROLL

Sarina & Surrounds

Just south of Mackay, Sarina is where country charm meets coastal calm. Slow down, wander through heritage streets, and taste the sweet side of life at the award-winning Sarina Sugar Shed. Then head for the beaches. Quiet, unspoiled, and perfect for a beachside adventure.

Getting HERE

About 40 minutes south of Mackay along the Bruce Highway with easy road trip vibes.

Find your VIBE

Field of Dreams Parklands: History, art, and local stories all in one spot, including a Visitor Information Centre.

Sarina Sugar Shed: Australia's only miniature sugar mill where you can learn, taste, and indulge.

Beach bliss: Sarina Beach, Armstrong Beach, Grasstree, Salonika, and Campwin. Picnic, fish, or just breathe in the fresh air.

Coastal views: Hay Point lookout for sweeping ocean panoramas and a glimpse of the coal terminal jetty.

Stay your way: Beachside motels for sunrise swims or in town for easy access to shops and cafés.

Let's
ROLL

Nebo

Small town, big stories. Nebo is steeped in pioneering history and framed by open plains and rugged ranges, a true taste of Queensland country. Slow down, soak up the heritage, and feel the gateway to the convenient outback.

Getting HERE

About 90 minutes west of Mackay along the Peak Downs Highway. An easy drive with plenty of scenic stops.

Find your VIBE

Historic Nebo Hotel: Built in 1862 and still serving hearty meals, comfortable stays and country charm.

Nebo Museum: Step back in time with artefacts and stories from droving days to gold rush trails.

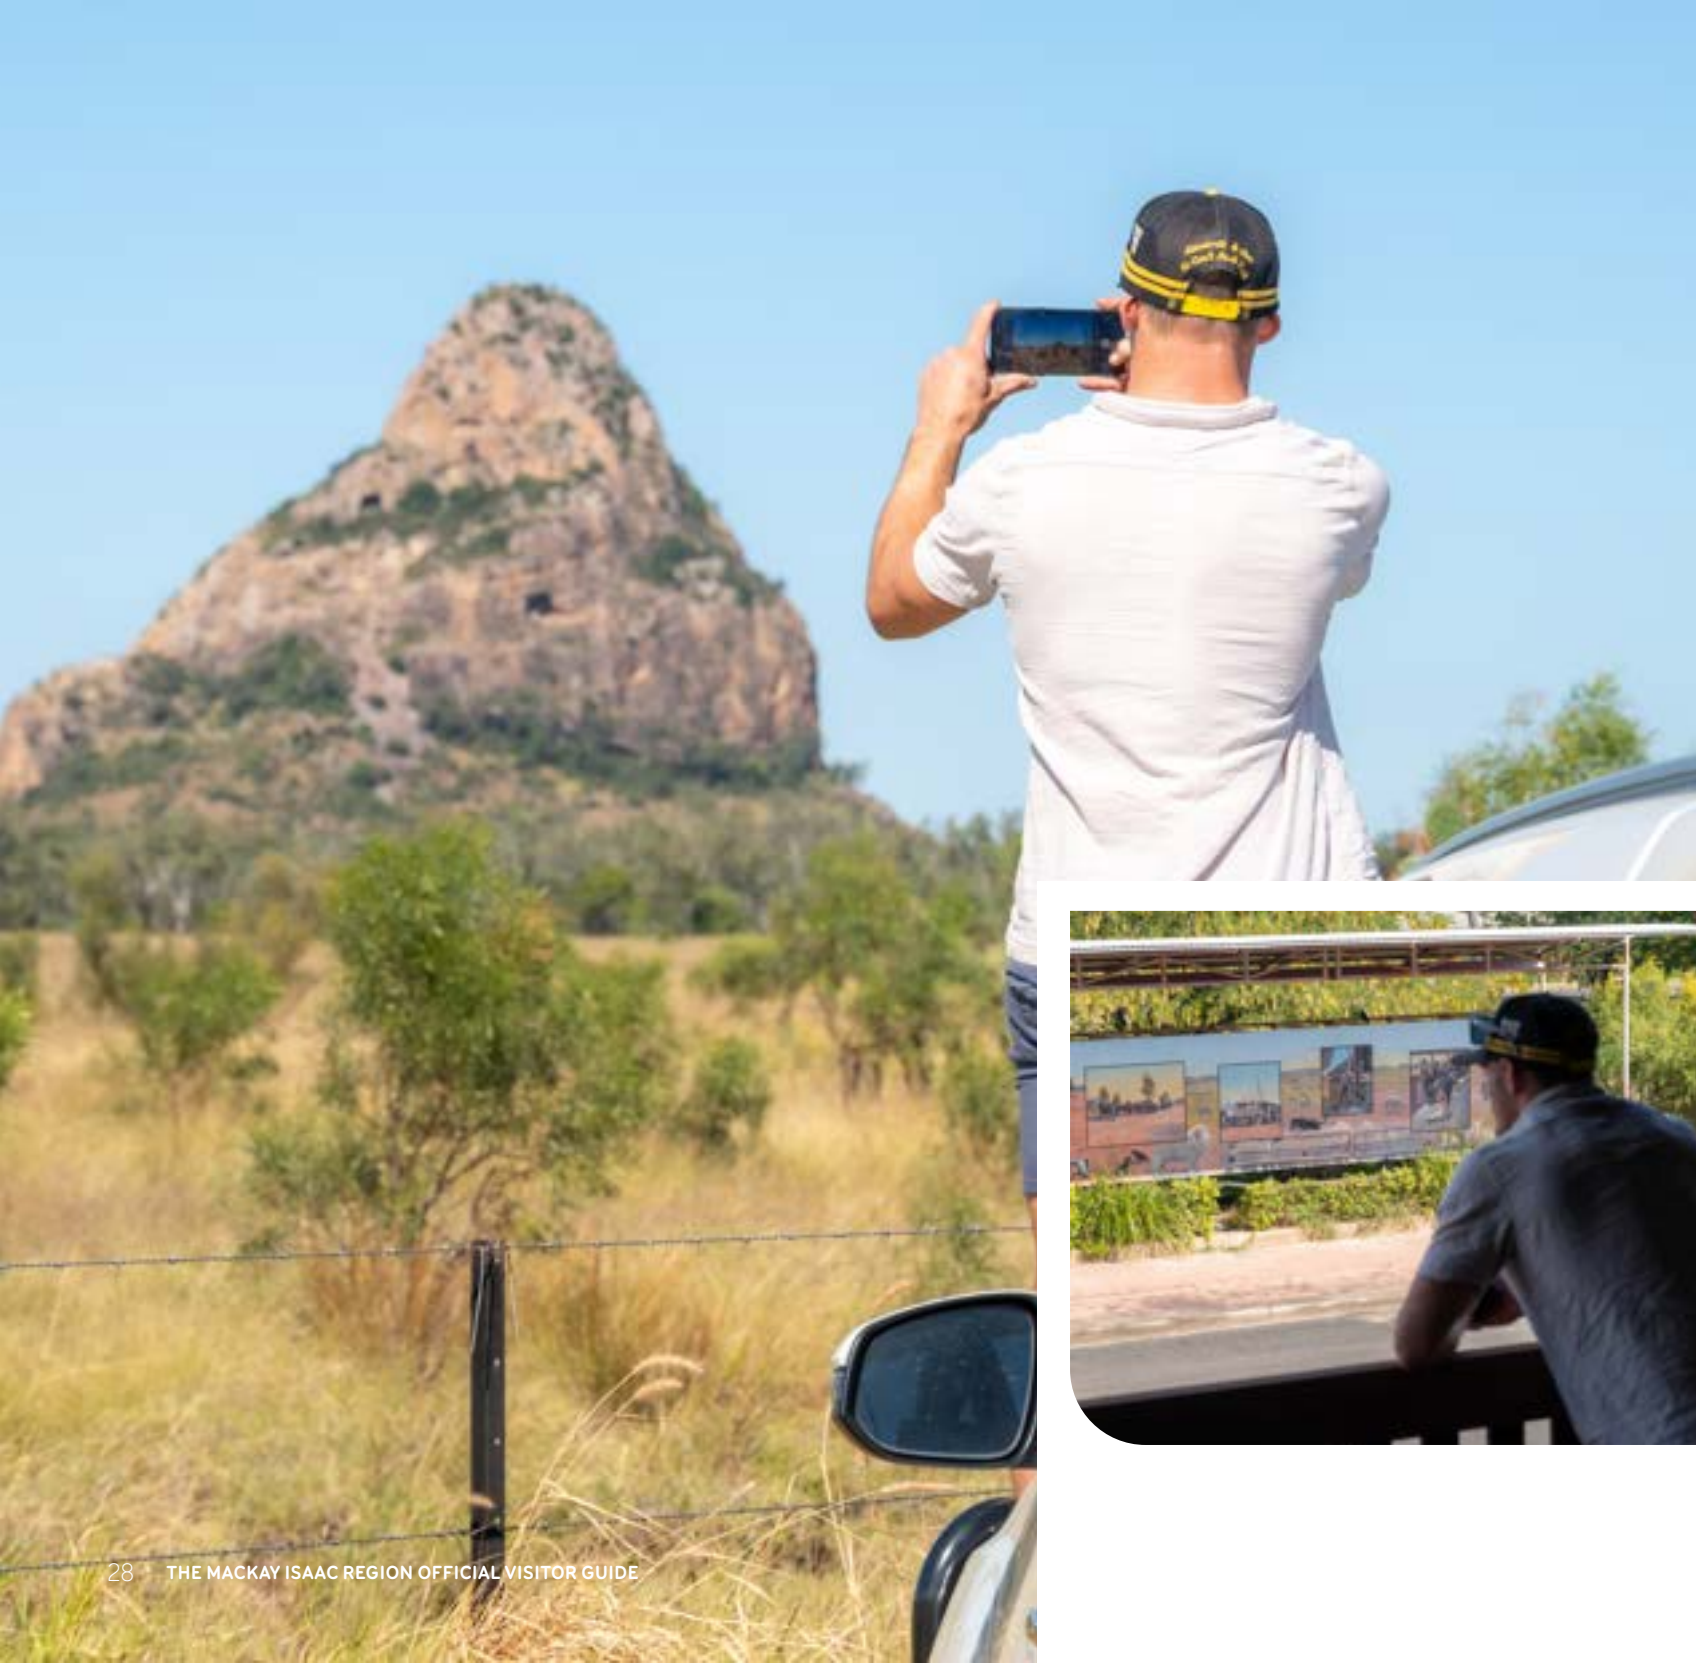

Nature escapes: Camp under the stars at Moonlight Dam or explore nearby Homevale National Park.

Western adventures: Use Nebo as your launchpad to Mount Britton's ghost town and the Peak Downs landscape.

Event energy: Time your visit for the Nebo Rodeo and Street Party for a truly unique yet exhilarating experience.

Let's
ROLL

Clermont

One of Queensland's oldest inland towns, Clermont is where gold rush history meets outback adventure. Wide skies, heritage streets, and a warm country welcome make this a true escape from the everyday.

Getting HERE

About 4 hours west of Mackay via the Peak Downs Highway. Country road trip vibes guaranteed.

Find your VIBE

Step back in time: Explore the interactive Clermont Museum and uncover stories of pioneers and prospectors.

Strike gold: Try your luck in Queensland's most accessible goldfields – because why not?

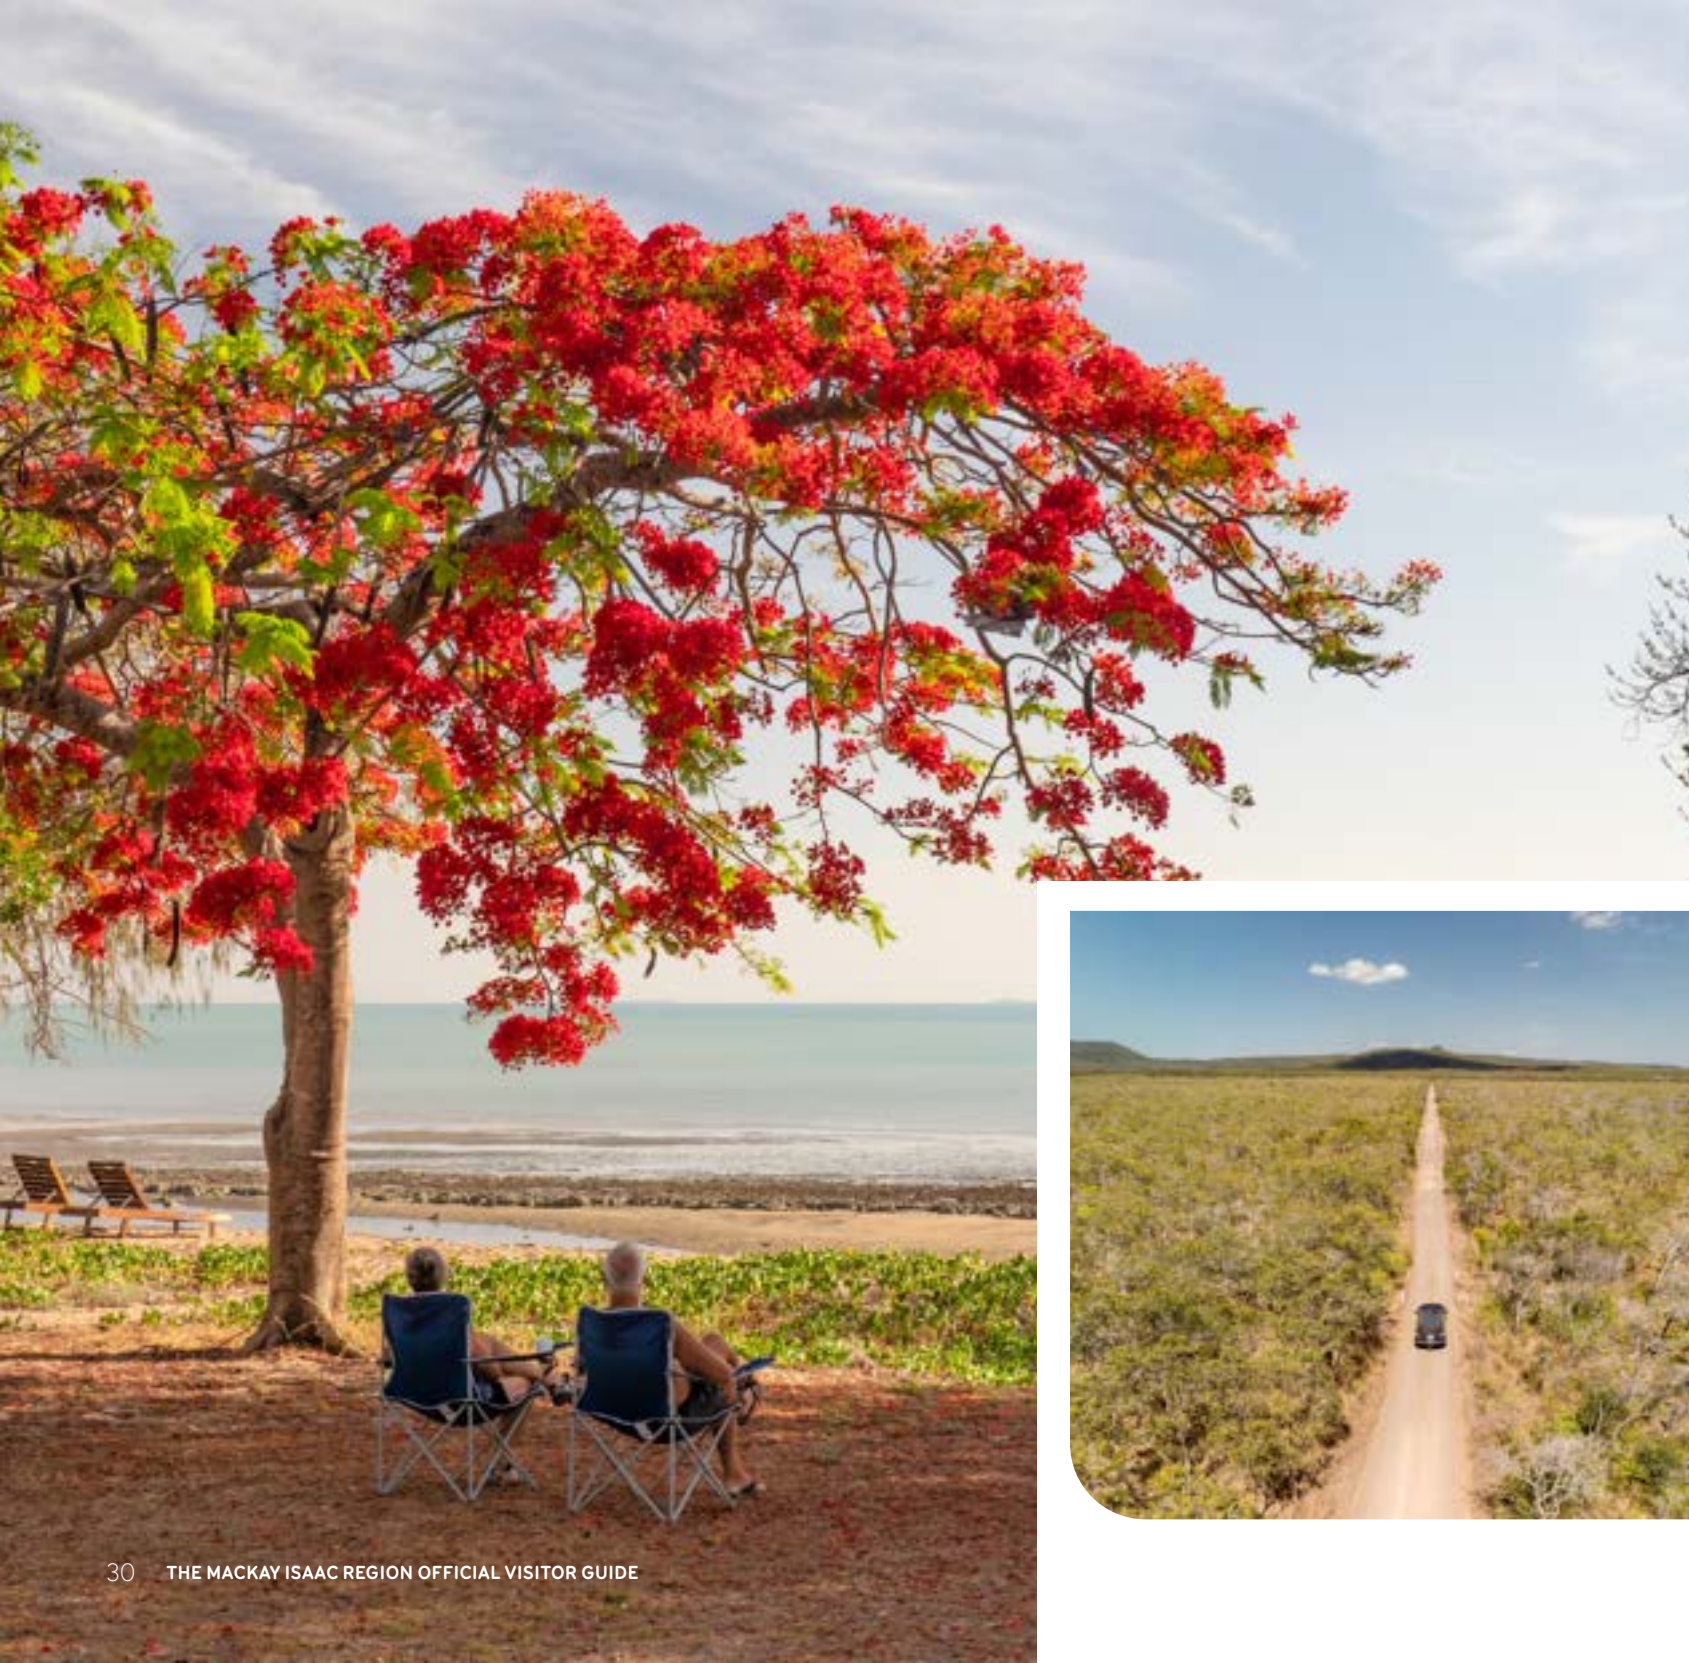

Nature fix: Chill out at Hoods Lagoon or camp by the water at Theresa Creek Dam, a stocked impoundment dam with barra fishing 365 days of the year.

Scenic drives: Take in volcanic peaks and rugged landscapes along the Peak Downs Highway.

Local flavour: Classic country pubs and friendly locals ready for a yarn.

Let's
ROLL

St Lawrence & Isaac Coast

Raw, rugged, and ridiculously beautiful. The Isaac Coast is coastal Queensland at its most authentic. Think quiet beaches, rocky headlands, and salt-of-the-earth hospitality. Pitch a tent, cast a line, or just let the ocean soundtrack your day.

Getting HERE

Follow the Bruce Highway south from Mackay. Each coastal turn brings a new slice of paradise.

Find your VIBE

Clairview: Palm-lined sands and a dugong sanctuary – keep your eyes peeled for these gentle giants.

Greenhill & Ilbilbie: Bushwalks, fishing, and 4WD adventures into Cape Palmerston National Park.

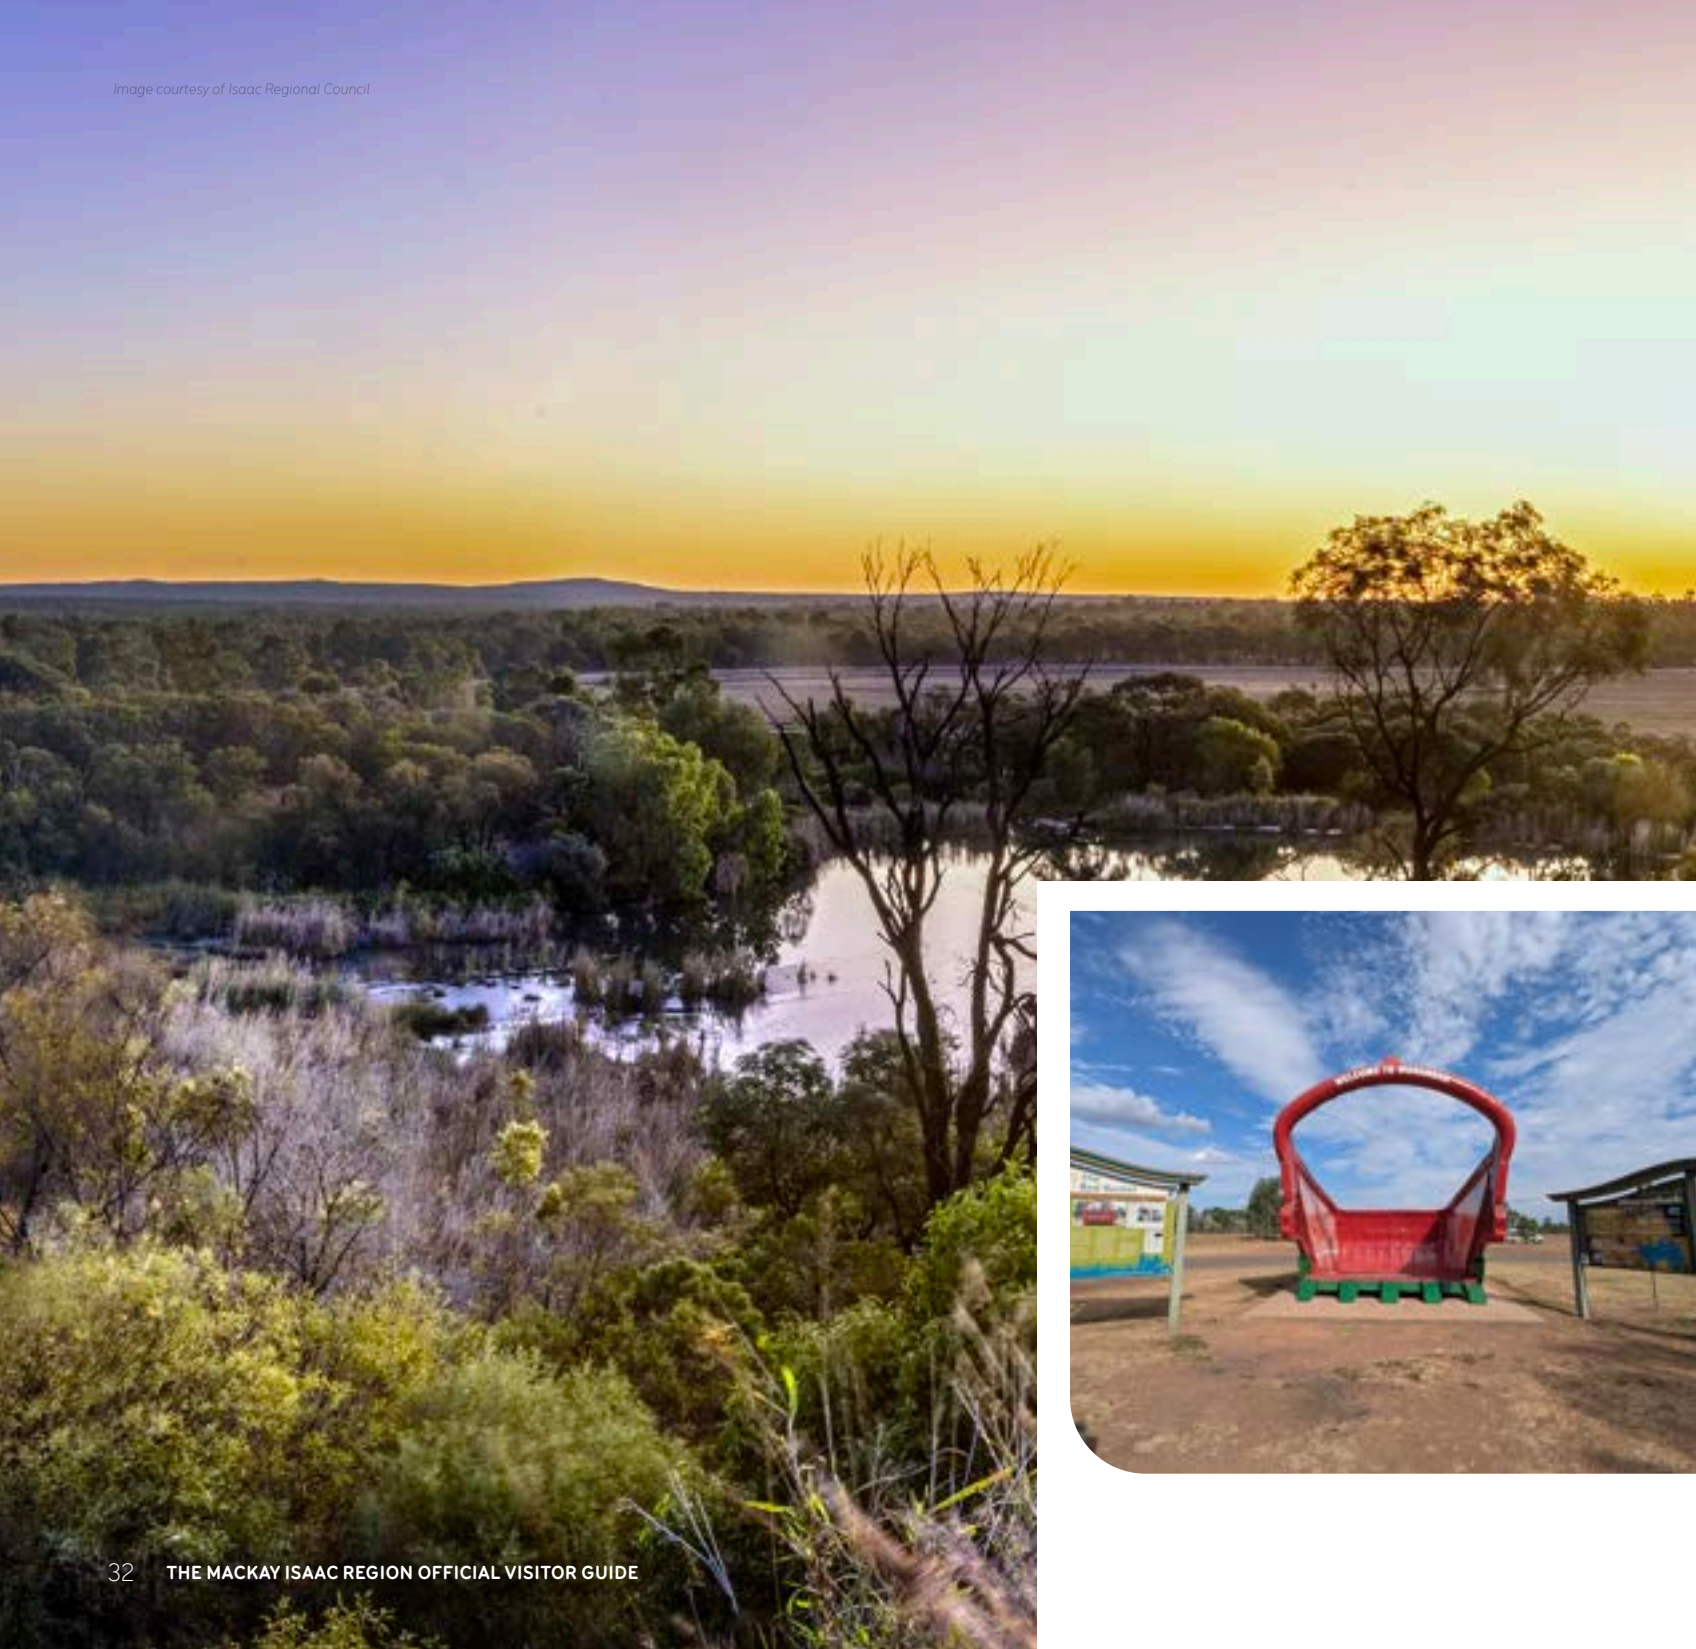

Notch Point & Yarrawonga: Secluded camping spots where the stars steal the show.

Carmila: Beachfront camping with all the essentials – barbecues, boat ramps, and endless ocean views.

St Lawrence: Wetlands alive with birdlife, heritage-listed buildings, and panoramic lookouts from Connors Range.

Let's
ROLL

Moranbah

Real country hospitality with modern comforts – Moranbah is where Queensland's mining heritage meets wide-open adventure. This is a town built on grit and mateship, surrounded by landscapes that beg you to roam. Here, the sunsets are bold, the skies endless, and the vibe? Pure outback freedom.

Getting HERE

Just under two hours inland from Mackay via the Peak Downs Highway. Flying? Moranbah Airport connects you straight to Brisbane, making it the perfect launchpad for your convenient outback escape.

Find your VIBE

Miners' Memorial: Pause for a moment of reflection in the heart of town square.

Coalface Art Gallery: Dive into local creativity and stories of the region.

Boutique cafés & shops: Fuel up and browse for something unique.

Big Red Rhino Bucket: Step inside this dragline giant and feel the scale of mining history.

Town Trails & Grosvenor Creek: Lace up for a sunrise walk or pack a picnic by the water.

Let's
ROLL

Middlemount

Middlemount is a vibrant, purpose-built mining town set amidst the red-dusted plains of the Isaac Region. Just 50 years young, it balances its industrial roots with a surprisingly nature-focused spirit. Wander through well-maintained parks and gardens or cool off at the local swimming pool. Outdoorsy souls can launch into family camping or water skiing and take in panoramic views.

Getting HERE

Approximately a 3-hour drive southwest of Mackay, 90 minutes southeast of Moranbah and 1.5 hours east of Clermont.

Find your VIBE

Blue Mountain Park: Barbecues, playgrounds, and sweeping views perfect for relaxing afternoons with the best vantage point to view an open cut mine in operation in the region.

Country Club Life: Tee off, roll a bowl, or hit the pool for laid-back local fun.

Country Races, with a Twist: The Middlemount Races is renowned for its unique dachshund races.

Nature Encounters: Spot galahs, kookaburras and rainbow lorikeets in town reserves and parks.

Dysart

Wild horizons, volcanic peaks, and a mining story carved deep into the earth. Dysart is a town that blends rugged beauty with raw history. It's your gateway to the Peak Ranges, where ancient formations rise like sentinels against endless skies.

Getting HERE

Three hours inland from Mackay via the Peak Downs Highway and 1 hour northeast of Clermont. It's a practical base for adventurers chasing volcanic landscapes and outback skies.

Find your VIBE

Lord's Table Mountain: Fly or explore on foot. Either way, time it to watch the sunset paint this iconic peak in fiery hues.

Mining Monuments: Snap a photo with the Belly Dump Truck and Coal Wagon at the northern entrance.

Tee Time: Enjoy a round of golf with great countryside views.

Wildlife Encounters: Keep your eyes peeled for kangaroos, emus, and even camels on rural roads. Don't forget to look up in town to spot koalas in the eucalyptus trees.

Let's
ROLL

Mountain BIKING

Two wheels, endless thrills. The Mackay Isaac Region is a mountain biker's dream. From rainforest tracks to rugged outback trails, every ride is a new story waiting to be written.

And the crown jewel? Finch Hatton Mountain Bike Park, nestled in one of the world's oldest rainforests. With 16 Airflow Trails spanning 14.5 km, riders can carve through green, blue, and black diamond routes packed with berms, jumps, and rollers for that perfect flow. Warm up on the 400m pump track, then hit the trails for misty climbs and rainforest descents. Trailhead amenities make it easy with parking, toilets, picnic spots, and even a bike wash station.

Find your VIBE

Finch Hatton MTB Park: 16 trails, pump track, and rainforest magic.

Rowallan Park (Mackay): Technical trails for adrenaline seekers.

Coastal Tracks: Scenic rides near Seaforth and Cape Hillsborough.

Outback Trails: Wide-open spaces near Clermont and Moranbah.

Pioneer Valley Rail Trail: Queensland's newest rail trail with stage 1 connecting Finch Hatton, Gargett and Benholme in the upper Pioneer Valley, west of Mackay.

Walking, Hiking & BUSHWALKING

Step into a world where every path leads to something wild like waterfalls, volcanic peaks, and views that stop you in your tracks. The Mackay Isaac Region is hiking and bushwalking heaven for wanderers who crave nature at its rawest.

Start at Finch Hatton Gorge, a wonderland of waterfalls and volcanic boulders. Stroll 1.6 km to Araluen Falls for a rainforest rockpool dip, or push on to the Wheel of Fire Cascades for another spectacular plunge.

Short on time? Try the Sky Window Circuit for Pioneer Valley views or the Rainforest Discovery Circuit near Broken River, both accessible. For something different, wander the Diversity Boardwalk at Cape Hillsborough.

Feeling bold? The Mackay Highlands Great Walk is the ultimate challenge with 56 km of misty rainforest, towering trees, and dramatic peaks over 3-5 days. For earthy views, head to the Peak Range National Park to explore ancient volcanic peaks that rise rugged from the plains, including Lord's Table Mountain and Gemini Mountains.

Find your VIBE

Finch Hatton Gorge: Rainforest trails to Araluen Falls and Wheel of Fire Cascades.

Sky Window Circuit: Quick Pioneer Valley views, easy access.

Rainforest Discovery Circuit: Platypus spotting near Broken River.

Andrews Point Track: Sunrise magic and wildlife encounters at Cape Hillsborough.

Peak Range National Park: Isaac's volcanic peaks with panoramic views.

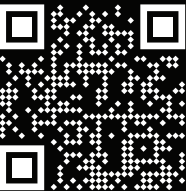

Mackay Highlands Great Walk: Multi-day rainforest adventure for seasoned hikers.

Gold Fever to Peaks VIBES

Head west we say! Gold fever is hot right now and you could strike it lucky. Whether you arrive with a pan in hand or just a healthy dose of "Why not?", Clermont invites you to slow down, get your hands dirty and see what might be waiting beneath the surface.

Follow the trail of Queensland's gold rush through historic towns, heritage landmarks and wide-open country roads.

This two-day itinerary is designed to keep things simple and flexible.

Highlights

- Try your luck gold fossicking in Clermont
- Fuel up with a meal and cold drink in town
- Snap a photo of the iconic Lord's Table Mountain
- Get active and explore Gemini Mountains
- Take to the skies with a scenic helicopter tour

As you wind your way back through the region, consider staying another night or heading toward Dysart, where the night skies are just as impressive. Out here, stargazing isn't an activity, it's just what happens when the sun goes down. No apps required. Just lie back and take it in.

Responsible RV TRAVEL

With wide-open highways, friendly towns and a great mix of off-grid and fully serviced camping spots, Mackay Isaac is an easy and rewarding destination for campervan and motorhome travellers, or those who prefer to embrace the rugged life with a roof top tent.

It's important to travel responsibly, use designated facilities, and enjoy the freedom of the drive.

You'll find free and low-cost camps, caravan parks with full amenities, potable water refills, and convenient dump points across the region.

From beachside stops at Carmila, Notch Point and Clairview to inland escapes like Theresa Creek Dam, Lake Elphinstone and Mount Britton, there's no shortage of places to pull up, slow down and explore.

Dump and water points

Always use designated facilities for waste. Rinse gear so it's clean for the next traveller. Refill water only from marked potable stations.

Where to find them

Coastal hubs: Mackay (Col Story Rotary Park), Sarina (Field of Dreams Parklands), Paget (BP Truck Stop), St Lawrence (Recreation Grounds), Carmila (Beach Campgrounds).

Inland towns: Mirani (Client Service Centre), Glenden (Maddern Oval), Nebo (Susie Whitehead Park), Moranbah (Council Depot), Clermont (Bowls Club and Theresa Creek Dam), Middlesbrough (Council Depot), Dysart (Civeo Camp).

What to expect

Free to use or available alongside campground access, most sites are located near highways, town centres, Visitor Information Centres, caravan parks, or community hubs. They accommodate a variety of vehicle sizes and often include black and grey water disposal, drinking-quality water refills, vehicle bays, waste bins, and rinse hoses.
