

RMPC LABOURER
VRN 04-27

About Richmond:

This position is based at picturesque Richmond, situated 500km west of Townsville on the banks of the Flinders River. The Shire of Richmond is approximately 26,000 square kilometres in the heart of Queensland. Richmond is a hive of activity during tourist season (April to October), and there are numerous weekend activities from sporting meets to dance balls to dinosaur fossil digs. A large recreational lake is used for water sports while the numerous park areas provide cool grassy spots to rest awhile. The surrounding region has all the beauty and dramatic landscapes of the outback.

The Position:

The successful applicant will be an enthusiastic, reliable person with an interest in Local Government. The position involves performing general labouring duties and operating plant and vehicles to support Council's RMPC work programs. Previous experience in a similar position would be an advantage but not essential. It is essential that the successful applicant have a C Class Drivers Licence. A HR or above Truck Licence would be an advantage but not essential. Plant tickets again would be an advantage but not essential.

The Remuneration:

Council will offer a base wage of $1047 per week working 38 hours, plus an over award payment of $213, bringing the wage to $1260 per week plus applicable allowances. After the successful completion of the probationary period, Council's 6% performance bonus on the base rate will also apply, bringing the weekly wage to $1323 This is in accordance with the Richmond Shire Council - Certified Agreement 2022.
