Know your weather. Know your risk.

'Know your weather. Know your risk.' is the Bureau's annual public safety campaign about severe weather.

The campaign will run from 24 August to 27 September 2026.
Each week will focus on a different severe weather type.
Hazard explainers, infographics and video content will be rolled out across social media platforms.
This includes Facebook, X, Instagram, YouTube and LinkedIn.

Hazard	Bushfire	Flood	Severe thunderstorms	Heatwave	Tropical cyclone
Campaign focus start date	24 August	31 August	7 September	14 September	21 September

Step 1

Visit the Bureau social media platforms to reshare hazard content

Step 2

Explore the Bureau's knowledge centre

Step 3

Download the BOM App and set up warning notifications

Step 4

Need something? Get in touch via email

Click the links above to explore

Know your weather. Know your risk.

The Bureau of Meteorology

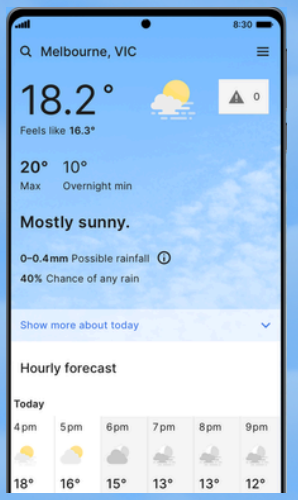
Click the links below to explore and download

	Infographic	Video	Knowledge centre
Bushfire	Do you know your fire danger ratings?	Understanding fire weather	Fire weather knowledge centre
Flood	Understanding flood advice	Understanding flood watches and warnings	Flood knowledge centre
Severe thunderstorms	What makes a thunderstorm 'severe'?	What is a severe thunderstorm?	Severe weather knowledge centre
Heatwave	Know your warnings this heatwave season	New heatwave video - Coming soon	Heatwave knowledge centre
Tropical cyclone	Understanding cyclone advice	Understanding tropical cyclone categories and warnings	Tropical cyclone knowledge centre

BOM

GET IT ON Google Play

Download on the App Store



BOM Weather

Australia's official weather app

Enable warning notifications

How to access weather warnings on a map

Weather app help and support