2019 Australian Bushfire Building Conference

A good conference doesn't just ignite discussion and encourage innovation; it also inspires people to turn ideas into reality.

With its unique combination of nature and culture, the Blue Mountains offers your delegates a wide range of unforgettable activities and experiences including adventure, food, art and leisure.

Along with the fresh air and incredible landscapes, it is a conference setting guaranteed to inspire and motivate your team.

Whatever the size of your goals, budget or group, Blue Mountains Tourism can suggest a venue, event specialist or conference management service to meet your requirements, offering ideas that can transform your conference from a mere meeting to an event that achieves lasting results.

Industry experts can take your event from concept to completion, with the goal to create a memorable experience for your team while taking the guesswork out of your hands.

With knowledge of the best venues, contractors, suppliers and activities that take full advantage of our World Heritage-listed backyard, Blue Mountains Tourism should be your first port of call when planning a business event that will surpass your every expectation.

EXPLORE

COME EARLY AND STAY LATE...
YOU WON'T REGRET IT.

No matter if your group is big or small, the Blue Mountains has it all.

Relax and enjoy yourself in a World-Heritage wilderness where waterfalls plummet into valleys clad with rainforest, and breathtaking views stretch to the hazy blue horizon.

There is a range of activities and experiences to choose from—and something to suit everyone.

Explore the quaint, historic villages nestled amongst trees, and indulge in a long lunch, spa treatment, visit a winery and find the perfect gift at the boutique shops. Experience the thrills at Scenic World where the Scenic Railway take you on a heartstopping ride into the depths of the Jamison Valley. Take a bushwalk along cliff tops to spectacular lookouts and meet the wildlife. Visit beautiful gardens, magnificent caves, and discover unique cultural experiences from ancient Aboriginal sites to modern street art.

Plan to come before the event or stay afterwards so you can explore at your leisure the wonders, beauty and history of this unforgettable region.

Mountain Culture Beer Co.

Rated Australia's #1 brewery, Mountain Culture is a unique venue, offering a full working brewery, a small kitchen and different seating areas all from a beautifully restored 1900s heritage-listed building.

Conveniently located just 180m from Katoomba station and with on-site parking, a mezzanine floor overlooks the venue (can be hired out privately), the main downstairs area is large, and there's an open-air deck that's one of the best places in the Mountains to watch the sun set.

We keep our food menu simple with classic, tasty burgers and snacks that go down a treat with a beer (GF and vegan options available). We also have non-alcoholic drinks, wine and cider.

Mountain Culture is available for hire Monday-Friday.

Norman Lindsay Gallery

Heritage-listed Norman Lindsay Gallery, once the home of artist and writer Norman Lindsay (1879-1969), is situated in Faulconbridge. This sandstone cottage with extensive grounds and artist studios is now a National Trust property displaying a significant collection of his artworks.

The gallery is an ideal venue for an evening cocktail party, a special group visit or activity. Private tours can be arranged. Lindsay's Café which is located within our grounds and set in an idyllic bushland setting can be booked for catering or inhouse dining. An outdoor evening function amongst some of Lindsay's sculptures is also possible.

The property was the setting for the film Sirens (filmed 1993), based on Norman Lindsay's life during the 1920s, starring Hugh Grant, Sam Neill and Elle MacPherson. Music events like Jazz in the Garden are also held annually.

HIGHLIGHTS

IMAGE Blue Mountains City Council

National Parks and Wildlife Service Guided Experiences

Cross a bridge with NPWS and take the deep wisdom of the bush back with you into your work and life. Try an early morning walk or a private tour, gain behind-the-scenes access, learn about bushfire regeneration, and participate in cultural activities as you become immersed in the iconic Greater Blue Mountains World Heritage Area.

Discover Indigenous culture in the Blue Mountains with a NPWS Aboriginal Cultural Experience, with local Aboriginal guides sharing their stories and knowledge of traditional customs, laws and history. Start your conference with a smoking ceremony, followed by a guided walk on Country where you can see the bush through the eyes of your guide. Learn about bush medicines and the importance of connection to the environment.

Scenic World Blue Mountains

No trip to the region is complete without a visit to Scenic World, the must-see tourist attraction perched on the escarpment overlooking the Jamison Valley, which has been attracting visitors for more than 75 years.

Best known for its iconic Scenic Railway—the world's steepest—visitors can catch their breath while travelling at 52 degrees and enjoy endless views suspended in mid-air on the Scenic Skyway. See the Three Sisters from a new perspective on the Scenic Cableway and disconnect from the devices among ancient rainforest as you stroll along the Scenic Walkway.

The natural beauty of the Blue Mountains speaks for itself, but Scenic World's stunning spaces and exclusive conference experiences make it a one-stop destination for incentive groups.

Blue Mountains Stargazing

Led by astrophysicist Dimitri and his partner Caroline, these fun and interactive 90 minute stargazing tours are a window to the spectacular dark skies of the Blue Mountains and the celestial wonders above. Tours include constellation storytelling, naked-eye astronomy, telescope viewing of the Moon, planets, stars, deep sky objects and galaxies.

Regular tours are held away from city lights at Wentworth Falls Picnic Area, with a dramatic backdrop of the Jamison Valley and accompanied by the sound of local wildlife and distant waterfalls.

Blue Mountains Stargazing also runs bespoke events such as Wine Tasting Stargazing in the Megalong Valley and dinners under the stars with local restaurants.

Jenolan Caves

Jenolan Caves are Australia's largest and most spectacular limestone caves, and the world's oldest. Discover the unspoiled underworld, stunning crystal formations and pure underground rivers on fascinating guided cave tours, visiting romantically-named caverns such as Imperial and Orient Caves.

For those who want a bigger challenge, slide, crawl, climb and squeeze deep into the mountain with only a headlamp to light the way on a guided Adventure Caving tour. Emerge with a new swagger as you conquer your fears, rewarded by the exhilaration that only authentic adventure can provide.

Nepean Belle

Cruising on the Nepean Belle Paddlewheeler offers a unique way to experience the natural wonders of the Australian landscape. Cruising leisurely along the Nepean River in the foothills of the Blue Mountains into the majestic and unspoiled 50 million year-old Nepean Gorge, you'll forget you are a mere 45 minute drive from Sydney's CBD.

'The Belle', as it is affectionately known, has been cruising this part of the world for nearly 40 years, with the family-run business helmed by Captain Chris, who you'll often find in the wheelhouse. Captain Chris has an intimate knowledge of the area, the Nepean River and the Nepean Gorge and is happy to chat to passengers. He may even give you a turn at the wheel!

Located just minutes from the M4 motorway, this is the perfect way to start or end your Blue Mountains conference, with convenient mini-bus and coach access.

Blue Mountains Adventure Company

Established in 1984, Blue Mountains Adventure Company was the first Blue Mountains-based company to offer professionally guided canyon tours through the amazing World Heritage wilderness.

Today, they offer hiking, canyoning, abseiling, rock climbing and other team building challenges, catering up to 120 people and tailored to meet your group's specific needs.

Qualified guides and quality gear including full-length wetsuits and access to thermal clothing prioritise safety during your adventure; all you have to bring is suitable clothing, footwear, a water bottle and a camera to capture the thrills.

This is a great way to build team cohesion or just a fun day out with a natural obstacle course. At the end of your Blue Mountains Corporate Adventure, toast your success with champagne and canapés on a cliff edge with views across the valley.

Blue Mountains Tourism

Blue Mountains Tourism (BMT) is the official local tourism organisation for the Blue Mountains region of NSW Australia.

Recognised by Destination NSW and Blue Mountains City Council as such, BMT works co-operatively with the council to:

- support and advocate for tourism businesses in the region
- promote a sustainable tourism industry nationally and globally
- attract visitors to the region
- guide visitors to tourism businesses when they are here

Tourism-focused, industry led and membership-based, the organisation is managed by three staff who work under the direction of a committee of industry professionals who donate their time, expertise and resources to the benefit of the wider tourism industry.
