Blue Mountains Tourism acknowledges that the Greater Blue Mountains World Heritage Area is located within the Ngurra (Country) of the Darkinjung, Darug, Dharawal, Gundungurra, Wanaruah and Wiradjuri peoples.

Blue Mountains Tourism respects the deep and unbroken connection that Aboriginal people hold with their Ngurra.

For Aboriginal people, Ngurra takes in everything within the physical, cultural and spiritual landscape — landforms, waterways, air, trees, rocks, plants, animals, food, medicine, minerals, stories and special places and includes cultural practice, kinship, knowledge, songs, stories and art, as well as spiritual beings and people past, present and future.

OUT OF THIS WORLD BUT EASY TO GET TO...

A business event in the Blue Mountains offers the thrills of a wilderness stay right on Sydney's doorstep. And the anticipated 2026 opening of Western Sydney International Airport will make interstate travel a breeze.

Rail

Less than 2 hours from Central Station to Katoomba. The Blue Mountains Line departs almost every hour.

Most villages in the Blue Mountains have a dedicated train station.

A good conference doesn't just ignite discussion and encourage innovation; it also inspires people to turn ideas into reality.

With its unique combination of nature and culture, the Blue Mountains offers your delegates a wide range of unforgettable activities and experiences including adventure, food, art and leisure.

Along with the fresh air and incredible landscapes, it is a conference setting guaranteed to inspire and motivate your team.

Whatever the size of your goals, budget or group, Blue Mountains Tourism can suggest a venue, event specialist or conference management service to meet your requirements, offering ideas that can transform your conference from a mere meeting to an event that achieves lasting results.

Industry experts can take your event from concept to completion, with the goal to create a memorable experience for your team while taking the guesswork out of your hands.

With knowledge of the best venues, contractors, suppliers and activities that take full advantage of our World Heritage-listed backyard, Blue Mountains Tourism should be your first port of call when planning a business event that will surpass your every expectation.

EXPLORE

COME EARLY AND STAY LATE...
YOU WON'T REGRET IT.

No matter if your group is big or small, the Blue Mountains has it all.

Relax and enjoy yourself in a World-Heritage wilderness where waterfalls plummet into valleys clad with rainforest, and breathtaking views stretch to the hazy blue horizon.

There is a range of activities and experiences to choose from—and something to suit everyone.

Explore the quaint, historic villages nestled amongst trees, and indulge in a long lunch, spa treatment, visit a winery and find the perfect gift at the boutique shops. Experience the thrills at Scenic World where the Scenic Railway take you on a heartstopping ride into the depths of the Jamison Valley. Take a bushwalk along cliff tops to spectacular lookouts and meet the wildlife. Visit beautiful gardens, magnificent caves, and discover unique cultural experiences from ancient Aboriginal sites to modern street art.

Plan to come before the event or stay afterwards so you can explore at your leisure the wonders, beauty and history of this unforgettable region.

Mountain Culture Beer Co.

Rated Australia's #1 brewery, Mountain Culture is a unique venue, offering a full working brewery, a small kitchen and different seating areas all from a beautifully restored 1900s heritage-listed building.

Conveniently located just 180m from Katoomba station and with on-site parking, a mezzanine floor overlooks the venue (can be hired out privately), the main downstairs area is large, and there's an open-air deck that's one of the best places in the Mountains to watch the sun set.

We keep our food menu simple with classic, tasty burgers and snacks that go down a treat with a beer (GF and vegan options available). We also have non-alcoholic drinks, wine and cider.

Mountain Culture is available for hire Monday-Friday.

Norman Lindsay Gallery

Heritage-listed Norman Lindsay Gallery, once the home of artist and writer Norman Lindsay (1879-1969), is situated in Faulconbridge. This sandstone cottage with extensive grounds and artist studios is now a National Trust property displaying a significant collection of his artworks.

The gallery is an ideal venue for an evening cocktail party, a special group visit or activity. Private tours can be arranged. Lindsay's Café which is located within our grounds and set in an idyllic bushland setting can be booked for catering or inhouse dining. An outdoor evening function amongst some of Lindsay's sculptures is also possible.

The property was the setting for the film Sirens (filmed 1993), based on Norman Lindsay's life during the 1920s, starring Hugh Grant, Sam Neill and Elle MacPherson. Music events like Jazz in the Garden are also held annually.

TEAM BUILDING AND INCENTIVES

Climbing mountains together builds your team!

There are plenty of ways to get your team “out of this world” in the Blue Mountains, so choose your own adventure. Whether it’s abseiling, canyoning, hiking, biking, climbing, horse riding, golfing or 4WD tours, we’ve got you covered.

BLUE MTNS

ADVENTURE

The rugged sandstone escarpments, cool canyons and bush trails are made for team adventures, and the best way to get a true sense of their majesty than to tackle them first-hand.

Blue Mountains Adventure Company

Established in 1984, Blue Mountains Adventure Company was the first Blue Mountains-based company to offer professionally guided canyon tours through the amazing World Heritage wilderness.

Today, they offer hiking, canyoning, abseiling, rock climbing and other team building challenges, catering up to 120 people and tailored to meet your group's specific needs.

Qualified guides and quality gear including full-length wetsuits and access to thermal clothing prioritise safety during your adventure; all you have to bring is suitable clothing, footwear, a water bottle and a camera to capture the thrills.

This is a great way to build team cohesion or just a fun day out with a natural obstacle course. At the end of your Blue Mountains Corporate Adventure, toast your success with champagne and canapés on a cliff edge with views across the valley.

Scenic World Blue Mountains

No trip to the region is complete without a visit to Scenic World, the must-see tourist attraction perched on the escarpment overlooking the Jamison Valley, which has been attracting visitors for more than 75 years.

Best known for its iconic Scenic Railway—the world's steepest—visitors can catch their breath while travelling at 52 degrees and enjoy endless views suspended in mid-air on the Scenic Skyway. See the Three Sisters from a new perspective on the Scenic Cableway and disconnect from the devices among ancient rainforest as you stroll along the Scenic Walkway.

The natural beauty of the Blue Mountains speaks for itself, but Scenic World's stunning spaces and exclusive conference experiences make it a one-stop destination for incentive groups.
