

PEOPLE PLACES STORIES

A photograph of a man with a beard and long hair, wearing a black t-shirt, standing in the ocean. He is playing a didgeridoo, with water splashing around him. The background shows a sunset over the ocean with a bright sun low on the horizon. The image is tilted and set against a yellow and blue background.

2019 PROGRAM

MANDURAH
ARTS FESTIVAL

MANDURAHARTSFESTIVAL.COM.AU

WELCOME! WELCOME!

Our stories are at the heart of our city.
They reflect the life and vibrancy of our community.
Like the waterways that connect
people to places,
They transport us to new lands and
states of mind –
And they bring people to our Mandjoogoordap.

Our arts festival will be filled with our stories.
It will inspire and foster our creativity.
We will express our stories through a
diverse range of mediums,
In ways that are uniquely us, uniquely
Mandurah.

This is Mandurah Arts Festival.

The City of Mandurah acknowledges the Bindjareb people as traditional custodians of this land.
We acknowledge and respect their continuing culture and the unique contribution they make to the life of this community.

For the first three weekends of November, our city will share the stories of our people through visual arts, film, music, dance, performance
and the written and spoken word.

An experimental program, from the format to the content and even the audience, we are starting small to give the festival the opportunity to grow organically with community at its heart.

We invite you to dip your toe or immerse yourself in Mandurah Arts Festival.

FESTIVAL LAUNCH

Hall Park, 1 Leighton Place
Saturday 2 November, from 4:30pm
Official opening at 6.45pm

Celebrate our new festival! Visit the Faces of Mandurah exhibition on the shared use path of Mandurah Bridge. Have your portrait taken in our photo booth, bring a picnic or enjoy a bite to eat from an array of food trucks.

At 6.45pm, join us for the official opening and enjoy a free community screening of the inspiring story of recently discovered portrait photographer, Vivian Maier, in Finding Vivian Maier as the sun sets over our beautiful city.

HOT SHORE SHUFFLE

Shangara Jive - Zimbabwean Afro Roots
Mandurah Performing Arts Centre
Sunday 3 November, from 1-3pm

Round off the weekend with some smooth African beats. Shangara Jive performs songs in Shona and English that reflect everyday Africa.

Featuring the traditional mbira (thumb piano), Shangara Jive plays a variety of rhythmic African music styles including kwassa kwassa, roots reggae, soka beat, jit, chimurenga and soukous.

WEARABLE ART MANDURAH BRIDGE WALK

In partnership with West Australian Opera Mandurah Bridge fishing platforms and boardwalk

Saturday, 9 November from 5:30 – 6:30pm

Starting on the Eastern Foreshore, near Gloria Jean's

For more information on the competition, visit wearableartmandurah.com

Join us for a magical Wearable Art Mandurah journey as 15 of this year's garments are transformed into a stunning, moving story that takes viewers from the Eastern Foreshore, through the Rogue Forest in Tuckey Lane, under the Mandurah Bridge to Dalrymple Park.

The show features West Australian Opera's Pia Harris, Theodore Murphy-Jelley, conductor Matt Reuben James Ward, accompanist Adrian Soares and the Lakelands Community Choir.

THE ROGUE POET

Rogue Forest, Tuckey Lane, Mandurah Terrace
Saturday 9 November and Sunday 10 November
11am – 3pm

Taking his poetry out on the streets, weaving words for the people he meets.

Share a story, a memory, a tale or two.

Sit with him; he'll create a poem just for you.

Whimsical, wonderful, something to treasure, words from the Rogue Poet will stay with you forever.

A poet sits and waits for the void to be filled. A connection, a conversation, a memory, a moment. You provide the inspiration, he weaves the words.

Let the Rogue Poet embellish your tale and turn it into something you can take away and treasure.

TOP OF THE TERRACE

Corner of Mandurah Terrace and Pinjarra Road
Saturday 9 November, from 2 – 10pm

Enjoy great live, local music, street eats and roving performers on the terrace, featuring the enchanting Rogue Forest and stunning Wearable Art Mandurah Bridge Walk with West Australian Opera.

Top of the Terrace is a partnership between local hoteliers on Mandurah Terrace and includes a licensed alfresco area and free amusements for the kids.

THE FLYWAY PRINT EXCHANGE EXHIBITION

Mandurah Performing Arts Centre, Ormsby Terrace
Friday, 11 October – Sunday, 24 November

The Flyway Print Exchange Exhibition is a tribute to the annual journey of migratory shorebirds throughout the East-Asian Australasian Flyway.

In 2014, 20 artists from 9 different countries spanning across the flyway, sent their work by post, unprotected, along the flyway and back, echoing the birds' journey and emphasising the weathering of their plumage. The prints, both travelled and pristine will be exhibited together.

Supported by Peel-Harvey Catchment Council, through funding from the Australian Government's National Landcare Program.
