Overview

Directions to the start of the trail

Turn left out of Dwellingup Visitor Centre and follow the road up the side of the oval. At the end of the street, turn left into Pinjarra Williams Road. After .5km, take the right hand turn into Nanga Road, which is clearly signposted for Lane Poole Reserve.

About 7km down Nanga Road on your left hand side you will see the Entry Station for the reserve. Turn into the Entry Station and follow the signs to either Chuditch campground (about 9km) or Nanga Mill campground (about 11km in).

Facilities

Car parking, picnic tables, campsites and toilet facilities are available at both Chuditch and Nanga Mill campgrounds. An undercover camp kitchen with gas barbecues is also provided at Chuditch campground.

Trail Description

This trail can be started at either Chuditch or Nanga Mill campgrounds. The majority of this trail is on wide tracks with gentle gradients. There is one short section of narrower trail near Chuditch that has short steep sections. The walk passes mostly through Jarrah forest with impressive stands of grass trees. Observe small woodland birds such as Scarlet Robins and Red-winged Fairy Wrens amongst the understorey, or Red-Tailed Black Cockatoos feeding high up in the canopy.

Be aware of vehicles and bikes as the trail shares sections of the Munda Biddi Trail and 4WD tracks.

Lane Poole Reserve

Summary

Lane Poole Reserve is part of the Murray River Valley that has been set aside as a reserve for conservation and recreation. Covering 55,000 hectares, it boasts spectacular jarrah forest and river scenery as well as offering excellent opportunities for bush walking, swimming, canoeing and mountain biking.

Day visits to the area are free and the many campsites offer a variety of overnight stay options. Camp fees apply. Further information is available at www.dpaw.wa.gov.au
