3. NESCI ESTATE WINE FARM

Fine wines, ports & liqueurs

Nesci Estate was established in 1948 by Antonio and Carmelina Nesci, when they cleared the land by hand and planted the first grape vines. Today Nesci Estate Wine Farm now has over 60 acres of vineyards, and is also home to around 100 beef cattle. The Nesci tradition of producing fine table wines, ports and liqueurs has been continued by their son Kevin.

6. WOOTRA FARM

Fresh, flavoursome asparagus

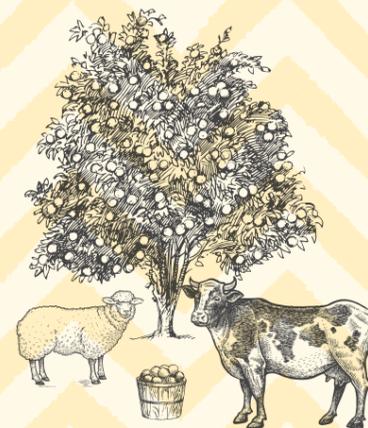

Behold the Aspara-van. Colleen and Peter established their asparagus venture in 2015 with 500 plants and this has grown to 11,000 in 2018. Growing in rich Bindoon soil our aim was to produce flavoursome asparagus, picked fresh to eat fresh, limiting carbon miles. One of nature's richest sources of vitamins, minerals and fibre, a tasty and healthy food. Meet the growers, see asparagus in production and collect recipe ideas.

FARM FLAVOUR TRAIL

WA
FOOD & WINE
TRAILS

Welcome to Chittering

Come and meet friendly locals and see where Perth's food originates from when you experience our Chittering Farm Flavour Trail.

Easy to find, travel along Great Northern Highway and onto Chittering Road to enjoy our beautiful Tourist Drive through the stunning Chittering Valley, discover a winery or two and then explore beyond to unearth a bounty of fresh produce from the region.

With many seasonal produce options, such as citrus, blueberries, mangoes, avocados, honey, eggs, stonefruit, nuts, asparagus, goats cheese and wine there is always something flavoursome on offer direct from the farmgate. With so much seasonal produce you may need more than one visit to appreciate the different colours and flavours of Chittering.

About Chittering

Escape the hustle and bustle, less than an hour's drive north of Perth and experience a country drive like no other. Chittering is nestled in the northern hills of the Darling Range and boasts untouched bushland, wetlands, vineyards, orchards, wildflowers and scenery with towns of Muchea and Bindoon along the way.

About WA Food & Wine Trails
