TOURIST DRIVE 33

The road less travelled

Take the road less travelled when visiting the Hunter Valley from Sydney and by taking the Tourist Drive 33, along the Great North Road or Convict Trail, and through the beautiful NSW countryside.

Tourist Drive 33 showcases some of the most stunning countryside in NSW and steps back in time as you meander through the convict stone walls, bridges and culverts still in use today. Stop in one of the many vibrant townships of Peats Ridge, Kulnura, Laguna, historic Wollombi and then make your way to Broke Fordwich,

A WEEKEND AWAY TO CELEBRATE

Travelling into this special pocket of the valley, you will immediately find yourself succumbing to a state of relaxation in this secluded, country charmed sub-region of Wine Country that boasts expanding grasslands, striking views and historical vines spanning across the land.

Feel at home and reconnect, together in Broke Fordwich

Broke Fordwich is the ultimate destination to gather for a group celebration. Broke offers plenty of remarkable experiences best enjoyed and celebrated with family and friends.
