WINE VARIETIES

The Hunter Valley produces less than two per cent of Australia’s wine, yet lays claim to some of the industry’s oldest and most well-known winemaking families, and consistently produces an impressive, award-winning array of varieties and styles.

SEMILLON

The Hunter Valley sets the world benchmark for Semillon, and it is, both nationally and internationally, the most highly awarded variety produced in the region. In its youth, it is zesty, bright with lemon/ lime aromas and flavours, and has a delicate acidity to finish – perfect for fresh seafood. Those who are prepared to wait are rewarded with complexity – biscuit, malt, honey and toasty richness.

CHARDONNAY

Typically medium to full-bodied in style, Hunter Valley Chardonnay is characterised by peach, fig and tropical fruit-like flavours with crisp and fresh unwooded styles, and full-bodied, rich and fulfilling wooded styles.

VERDELHO

A style unique to the Hunter Valley, Verdelho, customarily made without oak, is a fruit-driven medium-bodied wine.

SHIRAZ

Shiraz is undoubtedly the most important red variety in the Hunter Valley. Regionally distinctive, it is medium to full-bodied, characterised when young by blackberry, mulberry and plum characters, as well as spice, chocolate and liquorice with the characteristic regional earthy, leathery tones and complexity developing with age.

OTHER VARIETALS

Our hero wine icons – Semillon, Shiraz, Chardonnay and Verdelho are supported by up and coming European varieties such as Tempranillo, Sangiovese, Barbera, Montepulciano, Fiano and Vermentino which are thriving in the Hunter climate.

A number of specialty wines, including organic, sparkling, fortified and dessert wines, are also produced. No matter what your preference, you’ll always find a style to share and enjoy in the Hunter Valley.

GLANDORE ESTATE WINES 2020 CELLAR DOOR OF THE YEAR

HUNTER VALLEY LEGENDS & WINE INDUSTRY AWARDS

Sponsored by Wine Selectors, The Cellar Door of the Year award recognises excellence at a Hunter Valley Cellar Door.

Glandore Estate Wines was established in 2005 following the procurement of the original Brokenback chardonnay vineyard on Broke Rd. From day one, the aim of Glandore Estate wines has been to produce wines of great character, regionality and style from the traditional varieties known in the Hunter Valley. This has been achieved through the strict selection of some of the Hunter Valley’s most distinguished old vine vineyards. The team at Glandore have also started to forge ahead adding new and exciting varieties to their Hunter Valley range such as their superb Tempranillo.

Glandore’s winemaking style is all hands on, from hand picking right through to the hand operated basket press. Quality without compromise, and a winery that is designed specifically for small batch production of the very best parcels of fruit.

1595 Broke Rd Pokolbin – Open daily for tasting and sales.

Finalists are independently assessed against cellar door presentation, cellar door team, cellar door sales and social/digital experience.
